Re: *United States v. Ross Lanvin, 25 Cr. 106 (JPC)

Dear Judge Cronan:

The Government writes on behalf of both parties to respectfully request that the Court adjourn the August 4, 2025 status conference in this matter until September 29, 2025 at 3:00 p.m.

Since the parties' last appearance, the Government has produced discovery, including certain materials in redacted form, and has made the devices seized from the defendant and warrant returns containing child sexual abuse material available for defense counsel to review. The Government also has completed its responsiveness review of the devices seized from the defendant. The proposed adjournment will allow the defense time to continue to review these materials, including any materials that must be viewed at law enforcement facilities due to their content and cannot feasibly be produced in redacted form.

The Government also respectfully requests that the time between today and the next conference be excluded pursuant to the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The Government respectfully submits that the ends of justice served by granting the proposed exclusion outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, as the proposed exclusion will allow the defendant time to review discovery and the parties an opportunity to discuss the possibility of a pretrial resolution of this case. Defense counsel consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney
Southern District of New York
